L.O: To use capital letters and full stops consistently.

When do we use capital letters?

Starting Sentences

Capital letters are always used to start sentences.

He loves to eat cake!
The baby is sitting.

Proper Nouns

Nouns are naming words.

Proper nouns are naming words for

- individual people (Mrs Kennedy),
- places (Wembley Primary School),
- days of the week (Sunday) and months of the year (December).

Proper nouns all need capital letters.

Common Nouns	Proper Nouns
girl	Helen
country	England
city	Sheffield
football team	Nottingham Forest
day/month	Monday/September

The Personal Pronoun 'I'

When we are writing about ourselves, we use the personal pronoun 'I.'

I can tell the time.
I have a watch.

The personal pronoun 'I' always needs a capital letter.

What about full stops?

We place full stops at the end of statements i.e. a sentence which tells you something.

For example:

Miss Khan went to school yesterday.

Nothing is being asked and there is no strong emotion so we use a full stop to show that the sentence is complete.

Now it's your turn ...

Add capital letters in the right places in these sentences.

Remember, the beginnings of sentences, proper nouns and 'I' need capital letters! Don't forget your full stop at the end!

1. it is always snowing in iceland
2. i like going to london
3. mariam and sophia went to the shops in sheffield

Your task:

Rewrite the sentences using capital letters and full stops.
*Don't forget your finger spaces!

1) in the lighthouse, mr grinling would eat his lunch

2) the seagulls loved the peach surprise

3) at night time, mr and mrs grinling would make a plan to stop the seagulls

4) they covered the basket with a napkin

Challenge: Can you write your own sentences using full stops and capital.

L.O: To sequence a story.

Today you are going to be sequencing the story 'The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch'

When we sequence a story, we put the key ideas in chronological order.

That means it needs to be in the order it happened.

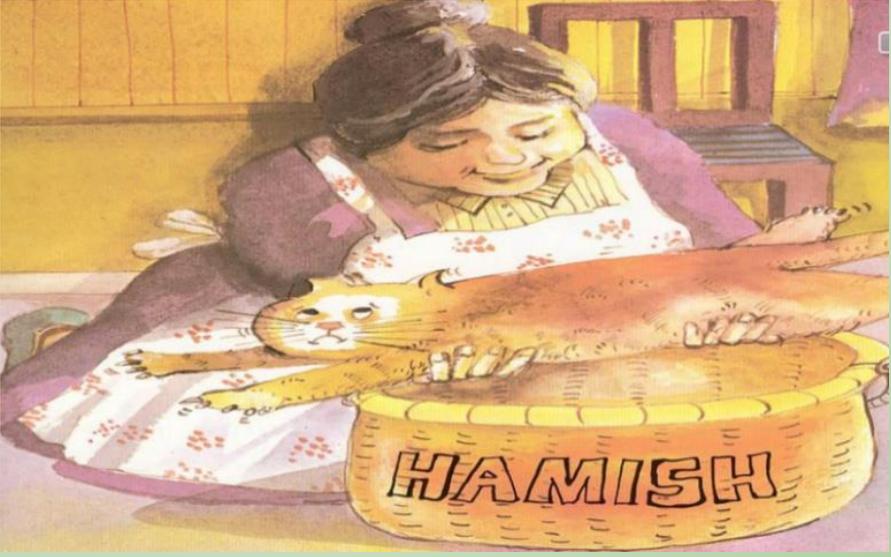

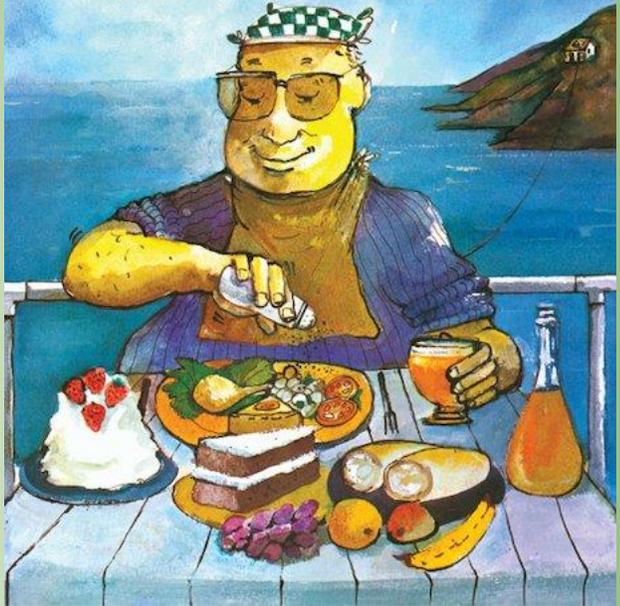

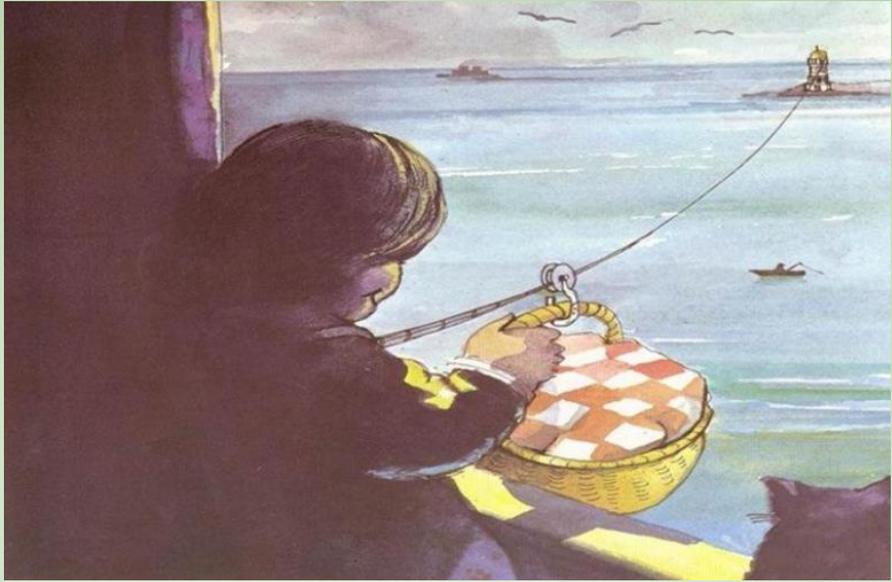

Your task:

You will be given a set of pictures from 1-5.

Order the pictures in order of when they happen in the story. Then Write what happened in that part of the story.

Don't worry about printing the pictures off, you can simply write the numbered picture and write down what happened in that part of the story.

Write numbers (1-5) next to each picture to show what order they come in the story.

For example for this picture, it is the first event of the story, so I would put it first (number 1).

I will then write what happened in this part of the story.

Mrs Grinling sends Mr Grinling lunch everyday.

Which picture shows what happens next?

In your books, write down which number picture goes next and write a sentence to explain what is happening in that picture.

L.O: To write sentences to sequence a narrative.

Today you will be using everything you have done this week to write a short narrative retelling the story of 'The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch.'

You need to think about what happens in the story and write a retell. You can use the pictures that you sequenced yesterday to help you remember.

Here is the order of the events to help you and some key words.

Word bank:

Lighthouse
Mr Grinling / Mrs Grinling
Hamish
seagulls
Lunch
Mustard sandwich

Time words:

First
Then
Next
After Finally

I will start off the retell for you and you can use what you remember to finish it off.

Capital letter at the beginning of the sentence.

Capital letter for the start of the name of the character.

There once lived a man called Mr Grinling who lived with his wife Mrs Grinling. Mr Grinling was a lighthouse keeper and loved his job. Everyday...

Full stop to end my sentence.

Challenging myself using a conjunction to make my writing more exciting.
