Sharing a Shell

Activation questions:

How many snails does the crab meet? What colour were they?

Why did the crab scuttle inside a shell?

You can use the story word mat to help you if you like.

L.O: To use the conjunction word because

When do we use because? To connect two sentences

Look at this sentence:

Amy went shopping. She needed to buy bread.

Why did Amy go shopping?

Amy went shopping because she needed to buy bread.

The next word doesn't need to start with a capital letter.

Your turn to practise:

Rewrite the sentences connecting them with because in the middle.

1. Tom likes school. He has lots of friends.
2. Sara wins a prize. She entered a competition.
3. Jenny eats chocolate everyday. She likes it.
4. We will have a party. It's my birthday.

Your task:

The tiny hermit crab loves his new shell and doesn't want to share it at first in the story.

Have you got a favourite toy that you really love and find it hard to share?

Can you draw a picture of it and write a few sentences about what makes it special to you?

E.g. My favourite toy is my big blue teddy bear because it was given to me on my first birthday. I find it hard to share my bear because he is very special to me.

Don't forget:

Capital letter at the beginning of the sentence.

Capital letter for a name

My favourite toy is my big blue teddy bear, Mr Snuggles because it was given to me on my first birthday. I find it hard to share my bear because he is very special to me.

Using because to connect my sentences.

Full stop to end my sentence.

Sharing a Shell

Activation questions:

What was the bright purple blob?

What did the Blob do to rescue the crab from the green fish?

L.O: To use and to join ideas

When do we use and?

To join together words or ideas.

Look at this question and answer:

Who is coming to the party?

James. Mia.

We can join the answers together with the word and.

Who is coming to the party?

James and Mia.

Your turn to practise:

Rewrite the answers, joining them with an and.

What are we going to eat?

Jelly. Ice cream.

What games will we play?

Pass the parcel. Musical statues.

What will we have at my party?

Juice. Cake

Your task:

In the story, the hermit crab shares his home with his friends.

Who do you share your home with?

Can you draw a picture of your home and write about who lives in it with you?

E.g. I share my home with my Mum and my dad and my two sisters.

Don't forget:

Capital letter at the beginning of the sentence.

I share my home with my mum and my dad and my two sisters.

Using and to join ideas.

Full stop to end my sentence.

Super Challenge

Can you use adjectives?

Remember these are describing words that make your writing interesting!

Try to use some adjectives to maybe describe people's hair and the objects around your house.

E.g. I live in a flat and it has two black shiny sofas. My bedroom has blue long curtains. I live with my mum who has short curly brown hair.

Sharing a Shell

Activation questions:

What was the brush thing that was trying to get into the shell?

How did the Brush worm help the crab?

L.O: To use conjunctions words because, and

When do we use and?

To join together words or ideas.

When do we use because?

To connect two sentences

Look back at the previous slides to remind you of examples of using and or because.

Your task:

The bristle worm is really good at looking after the shell and keeping it clean, to make it feel like home for his friends.

Can you write a few sentences about how you help take care of your home and why?

E.g. I help my mum wash the dishes and dust the room because I like helping my mum and it keeps the house clean.

Don't forget:

Capital letter at the beginning of the sentence.

Using and to join ideas

Using because to connect my sentences.

I help my mum wash the dishes and dust the room because I like helping my mum and it keeps the house clean.

Full stop to end my sentence.

Reflecting

Today we are going to take a look at the answers for the activation questions you did on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Activation questions:

- How many snails does the crab meet? What colour were they?
4 - They were red, green, purple, orange on pages 1-2

- Why did the crab scuttle inside a shell?

The crab saw a gull with a wide open beak and he thought he may be eaten!

Reflecting

- What was the bright purple blob?

It was an anemone not a bright purple blob

- What did the Blob do to rescue the crab from the green fish?

Blob used his tentacles to sting the fish on its nose.

Reflecting

- What was the brush thing that was trying to get into the shell?

It was a Bristleworm not a brush.

- How did the Brush worm help the crab?

Brush would suck up the scraps and keep the shell lovely and clean.
