L.O: To write captions.

Today you will be writing captions for a picture from Diary of a killer cat.

The character you will be writing captions for today is Tuffy the killer cat.

Make sure you include:

What he looks like,

Where he is.

Don't forget your capital letters and full stops in your sentences and make sure to use your finger spaces.

Here are some examples that I've written.

Tuffy the cat has orange fur.

He has sharp teeth.

Tuffy the cat is in the kitchen.

L.O: To write a character description.

Today you will be writing sentences to form a character description about Tuffy the cat. You will only be focusing on his appearance.

Remember appearance is what the character looks like.

Make sure to include adjectives to describe his face, fur, weight.

Key words you could include

orange	small	sharp
stripy	teeth	claws
whiskers	scary	evil

Here are two pictures of Tuffy the cat to help you. Remember your capital letters and full stops. Capital letters are used at the beginning of a sentence and also for names. Full stops go at the end of the sentence. Also remember your finger spaces between words!

Here is an example to help you get started.

Tuffy the cat has orange fur. He has a tiny eyes. His claws are very sharp.

Try to challenge yourself by adding conjunctions such as and, or, but.

For example: Tuffy the cat has orange and white fur. He might look cute but he has sharp teeth.

L.O: To edit and improve my work.

Today you will be editing your work
and trying to improve it!

Correct your mistakes!

Missing capital letter
at the beginning of my sentence.

Capital letter in the middle of my sentence.

Tuffy the cat has Orange fur. he has green eyes. Tuffy the cat looks nice. He has sharp teeth. He uses his sharp claws to catch small, litl animal

No full stop at the end of my sentence.

Check my spelling of common exception words.

Now that I have edited my work, I want to improve it by adding interesting words and conjunctions.

Tuffy the cat has orange and white striped fur. He has small, green eyes. Tuffy the cat looks cute but he has sharp teeth. He uses his sharp claws to catch small, little animals.

Challenge:

You can challenge yourself adding the conjunction 'because':
