

L.O. To write a personal response to a character

---

Week 4 Friday

Starter

---

- Improve the following sentences by using emotive language:
- Rohodopis was kidnapped and sold as a slave in Egypt.
- Other servant girls gave all their work to Rhodopis.
- Master gave Rhodopis new slippers.
- The Pharaoh said Rhodopis was more Egyptian of all.

Reread your planning for the personal response from yesterday

---

- Is there anything you want to add?
- Have you included the following for each paragraph:
  - Talking about the key events
  - Opinions, beliefs and experiences
  - Emotive language

Write your personal response

---

- After each paragraph, read back to check your spellings
- Check to see if your sentences are making sense
- Can you add or change anything to make it better

After you finish writing your conclusion:

---

- Check if you have correctly followed the success criteria
- Read your work aloud to check how it sounds
- If you were Rhodopis, how would you feel after reading that personal response
- Make any changes required to improve the personal response

Success Criteria

LO: To create a personal response to a character's diary entry
Success Criteria	Evidence	SA	TA
I have responded to specific events from the diary entry.
I have added my beliefs, opinions and experiences.
I have used emotive language by including adjectives to describe feelings and emotions.
I have used emotive language by including adjectives to describe nouns.
I have used emotive language by including adverbs to describe verbs and actions.
I have written in the first person (e.g. I, we, my, me).
For every piece of writing: Proof read spelling, basic sentence punctuation (capital letters and full-stops) and other punctuation (e.g. commas, question marks, exclamation marks, apostrophe for contraction).			