(G) We are recently reading some of your literature. We have read Romeo and Juliet Macbeth and Midsummer night's dream.

Due to being away from school we have to edit our work in a new way!

First we need to look at our description from yesterday...

What paragraphs could we improve?

How can we improve it?

We can try by adding adjectives, noun phrases or details and by checking for SPAG mistakes.

Identify a paragraph that you can improve and make changes...

Bertie is a little boy who was born somewhere in Africa. He is white with brown eyes. He has a long nose and his hair is black.

becomes

Bertie is a sweet caring little boy who was born somewhere in Africa. He is white with really pale skin and he has small, dim brown eyes that are lacking sparkle. He has a long, pointy nose and his hair is black, thin and spiky.

Identify a paragraph that you can improve and make changes...

Bertie is a kind little boy who loves to spend time with the little old lady. He really wants to learn new things.

becomes

Bertie is a kind little boy who loves to spend time with the little old lady. He really wants to learn new things and loves when they talk over tea and scones. When the little old lady puts the kettle on Bertie is optimistic and hopeful about what the afternoon will bring. What a joyful time this is!

The little old lady believes that the Bertie is nice and sweet because he often visits her.

becomes

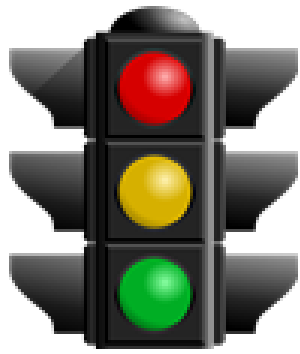

The little old lady believes that the Bertie is nice and sweet because he often visits her and is one of the only people in the world that want to spend their time with her. She loves Bertie because when they discuss things over their tea and scones she learns from him as much as he learns from her.
