Author:

Hugh Lupton and Daniel Morden are both leading storytellers. Together they have written many retellings of ancient Greek stories. In 2006, Daniel and Hugh received the Classical Associations' award for 'the most significant contribution to the public understanding of the classics.' The book is beautifully illustrated by Christina Balit.

Context / Knowledge

We travel back in time to Ancient Greece to experience one of the greatest epic stories of all time with 'The Adventures of Odysseus'. Once the Trojan war ended, Odysseus thought his journey home would begin. But what he assumed was the end of his adventure was truly only the beginning.

Our reading strategy Prediction

What is prediction? What do we use?

Prediction is making a statement about what will happen in the future. It is based on:

- ✓ What you have read
- ✓ Clues the author gives you (inference).
- ✓ What you already know (Prior knowledge)

It is not a guess.

What makes good prediction?

Example

- ✓ Evidence – because.
- ✓ Finding clues from what you have read or seen.
- ✓ Think about what might happen but also other features e.g. what language you might find, how it will be set out.

Learning Behaviour - Discuss and Explain:

- I'd like to build on that point .... / Similarly...
- In contrast / Alternatively ...

Chapter 4

Circe

Teacher's Think
Aloud

'Odysseus, this is Circe. She is a woman of great knowledge and power. If you enter this place with no protection you will suffer the same fate as all the others. But if you have the strength of character to follow the instructions that I am about to give you, not only will your crew be restored to you, but you may gain some of the knowledge you need to find a way home.'

Key Question:

What do you think the next part will be about?

Prediction Stems

- I wonder if
- I predict
- I think that because
- I bet that
- I imagine
- I think * will happen
- I think I will learn
- I think it will be set out
- The next part will be about

Key Question:

What do you think the next part will be about?

Answer to Teacher's Think Aloud:

I think the next part will be about how Odysseus follows the instructions from Hermes because the text says if he follows the instructions, his crew will be restored back to human and they will have the knowledge to find their way home.

Prediction Stems

Chapter 4 Circe

Your Turn
(with Talk Partner, if possible)

The Gods visit us in dreams and visions. Sometimes they tell us truths, but sometimes not. Sometimes they tell us half-truths, to betray us. I saw it happen at Troy. Hermes is not just the Messenger of the Gods; he is also the God of Trickery and Storytelling. But what choice did I have? I could not sail my ship alone.

Example Answer:

I think that the next part will be about how Odysseus does follow Hermes' instructions even though he does not trust him because he wants his men back. The text says, 'But what choice did I have? I could not sail my ship alone.'
