

Day 4

LO: To edit and improve our setting description

Day 4

LO: TO write a setting description for Egyptian Cinderella

- Quick starter:

Can you spell these common exception words correctly

thot

thru

Day 4

LO: TO write a setting description for Egyptian Cinderella

How are we going to edit and improve our setting description?

We need to have our success criteria in front of us!

Senses

Powerful adjectives and noun phrases

Powerful verbs and adverbs

Similes

Metaphors

Paragraphs

How can we edit this:

As the stunning Pharaoh approached the servant girls, all they could smell was the beautiful scent of lavender. He slowly walked towards them carrying a rosy-red slipper glistening in the sunlight like a star.

As Rhodopis tried on the slipper it felt like resting her feet in the clouds. It fit perfectly into Rhodopis's cute feet. She had a pretty body, with legs as long as a giraffes, beautiful blonde hair and rosy cheeks. The pharaoh was astounded by her.

Rhodopis and the Pharaoh entered the Royal barge, all she could see was glistening gold vases and jewellery. The barge was made out of soft wood and it smelled like an ancient forest. She could hear the soft waves of water rippling along the side of the barge as she entered.

As the stunning Pharaoh approached the unkind, superficial servant girls, all they could smell was the beautiful, calming scent of lavender. Their hearts were pounding fast, and they were blushing, as slowly walked towards them carrying a rosy-red slippery glistening in the sunlight like a star.

As Rhodopis tried on the slipper, it felt like resting her feet in the clouds. It fit perfectly into Rhodopis's ~~cute~~adorable-feet. She had a ~~pretty~~stunning body, with legs as long as a giraffes, beautiful blonde hair that tangled when the harsh breeze blew in different directions, and her cheeks were as rosy as a fresh pink rose. The pharaoh was astounded by her.

When Rhodopis and the Pharaoh entered the Royal barge, all she could see was glistening gold vases and jewellery. The barge was made out of soft wood and it smelled like an ancient forest. She could hear the soft waves of water rippling along the side of the barge as she entered.

Senses

Powerful adjectives and noun phrases

Powerful verbs and adverbs

Similes

Metaphors

Paragraphs

Here is an example of some editing

Adding synonyms

Adding extra information

Task: Look at the success criteria and your writing from yesterday. Edit and improve your writing.

- Success Criteria:

Senses

Powerful adjectives and noun phrases

Powerful verbs and adverbs

Similes

Metaphors

Paragraphs