Clarifying

This week, we are focussing on clarifying because good readers clarify to understand what they are reading.

There are 2 steps:

- 1. Stopping when you are stuck on a word / idea / section of text.(a breakdown)*
- 2. Using tools to solve the problem.*

What is our toolkit for the reading wall?

When the queen heard that the stranger was planning to take the Princess away, should he earn his reward, she was unhappy and remonstrated with the King.

Key Question:

Which word is tricky? Which tool can you use to help you?

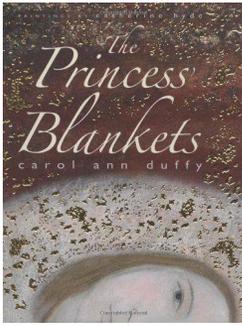

Answer to Teacher's Think Aloud:

The word 'remonstrated' is tricky. It sounds like demonstrated. I used a dictionary and found out it means to protest. I then checked by replacing the word remonstrated with protested and it does now make sense.

Key Question:

Which word is tricky? Which tool can you use to help you?

Example Answer:

The word stony was tricky because I needed to understand how it described the eyes. I re-read this part to help me understand and I used my prior knowledge from the text where his eyes were described like polished stones.

When reading think about if you can make any connections. We will be focusing on that strategy next week.
