Anne Frank

During the Nazi occupation of Amsterdam in the Second World War, Anne Frank and her family hid at the top of an Amsterdam warehouse for two years, while other Jews were rounded up by the SS. Anne began her diary just before they hid away and continued writing until 1 August 1944. Three days later the family was discovered and arrested. Anne died in a concentration camp at the age of 15 in the winter of 1944-45, just months before the end of the war. Her diary was first published in 1947.

Yesterday I had a terrible fright. At eight o'clock the doorbell suddenly rang. All I could think of was that someone was coming to get us, you know who I mean. But I calmed down when everybody swore it must have been either pranksters or the postman.
